Our Band.

The band boys have sent some programmes out relating to the two weeks' series of concerts given by them at Lincoln Park Beach at Chicago, during the latter part of July. The selections of music by Professor Libornio do credit to the band. The "Famous World Fair's Band" playing at the same resort did not play nearly as good music as did Hawaii's "Royal" band. Libornio, by the way is advertised as "the greatest saxophone player of the world," and both he and the boys are treated to the most flattering newspaper reports. The boys do a great deal of singing and their "sweet" voices take the audiences by storm. The Liliuokalani March is generally the concluding number, and one paper seriously smells a political scheme in favor of restoration, when the band plays Hawaii Pono, and after a roll on the snare drum finishes up with the Star Spangled Banner. It is pleasing indeed to hear that, the boys are doing well, and their appearance in the States is no doubt the best advertisement Hawaii has had for a long time.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

A Word to the Wise

While people are complaining of dull times and no money, we are busy showing every CASH Customer who comes into our establishment, that the purchasing power of his dollar is greater with us than elsewhere. We believe that every purchaser who buys a good article cheap, gets into a good humor with himself, and by natural process, with his neighbors also; which goes a long way to relieve the oppressive feelings of dull times. To feel pleased with ourselves and one another no better opportunity offers than to trade at the Grocery Store of
